DETAILED ACTION

The response received 4/26/2010 has been placed in the file and was considered by the examiner. The 4/26/2010 amendment contains claims numbered 7-14. Claims 1-6 were previously canceled.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 7-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. For example, method claim 7 recites "using a controller for controlling a plurality of lamps..."; similarly, method claim 10 recites "using a computer based controller for controlling different lamps in the plurality of lamps..." but these limitations which was not supported or disclosed in the specification as original filed or present in the specification for employment of these limitations in the original disclosure. Other words, the limitation as introduce in the claims 7 and 10 do not have basis in the original disclosure. Thus they are new matter. See MPEP 2173.05(i).

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 7-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Method claim 7 recites "using a controller for controlling a plurality of lamps..." ; similarly, method claim 10 recites "using a computer based controller for controlling different lamps in the plurality of lamps...". It is unclear what kind of control language and/or program to interface between computer base and controller in order to control different lamps in the plurality of lamps or to control a plurality of lamps to move commonly based as though each lamp or each of the plurality of lamps was mounted oriented on a truss that extended in the same direction. One having ordinary skill in the art would have to perform undue experimentation to make/use the claimed features.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 7 and 10 have been given carefully consideration. However, the claims as amended raise a new ground of rejection under 112 1st and 2nd paragraphs as failing to comply with the written description requirement and failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
